Planners & Preservationists

The Cambridge Preservation Society & the City's Green Belt 1928-1985

Author: Anthony J Cooper Price: £8.00 plus £3.50 postage & packing

An account of how a group consisting of Masters of Colleges, town councillors, business men and others came together to form a Society to preserve the character, amenities and countryside setting of Cambridge. The book traces how over a period of nearly sixty years they and their successors came to influence the planning of Cambridge and the establishment of the Green Belt.

Once Around Wandlebury

Author: Wendy Clark Price: £7.00 plus £1.00 postage & packing

This book traces the history of Wandlebury, the myths, people and events that made the Wandlebury landscape from the Iron Age to the twentieth century.

The Godolphin Arabian

Author: Wendy Clark Price: £3.00 plus £1.00 postage and packing

This illustrated booklet tells the story of Wandlebury's famous Arab horse - the leading stallion in Lord Godolphin's Gog Magog Stables in the 18th century and one the forbearers of the modern thoroughbred.

The Lost Gardens of Wandlebury

Author: Dr Twigs Way Price: £3.00 plus 75p postage and packing

This booklet traces the history of the gardens at Wandlebury from their initial creation in the 18th century, through their transformation in the Victorian and Edwardian period, and into the modern day. It includes artists impressions of how the gardens inside the Ring would have looked in the eighteenth, nineteenth and early twentieth century.

Stourbridge Leper Chapel, Barnwell, Cambridge A brief history

Author: Dr Barry Pearce Price: £2.50 plus 75p postage and packing

This booklet charts the fascinating history of the Chapel, one of the most complete and unspoilt pieces of Norman architecture in the county, from its origins in the 1150s as the chapel of the Stourbridge Leper hospital, to its association with Stourbridge fair, its restoration as a place of worship in the 19th century and its acquisition by the Preservation Society in the 1950s.
